

Weekly update:

Finally a little sunshine for us all!

We have had a good but strange short week here at Bankside. We have still managed to get a lot done but I think we have all felt a bit lost with no Monday in school. The pupils have been working hard and the fruits of their labour are paying off through the work that they are producing and the input they are having on the school environment. Everywhere is looking very busy! Next week looks to be another bright and sunny one! We have the usual trips going ahead including the bi-weekly trip to the library which has been a great success for the pupils. They are showing a real interest in reading and it is great to see. Have a lovely weekend!

Well Dressing

I am very pleased to announce that we won a silver rosette in the Well Dressing competition and well deserved it was too. I had the pleasure of seeking it out on Saturday and was blown away by how good it all looked. Well done to all involved!

Other information:

A clothing bank is now on site. We are supporting Air Ambulance with the donations.

If you'd like to donate please send the items in with your child.
